Sayin' Old Dan Tucker is a-comin' to town.

He's too late to eat his supper.
Supper's over and dinner's cookin'
Old Dan Tucker just stands there lookin'.

2. Old Dan Tucker came to town
Ridin' a billy goat, leadin' a hound.
Hound dog bark, the billy goat jump,
Threw Old Dan Tucker up side of a stump.

CHORUS

3. Now Old Dan Tucker he got drunk,
Fell in the fire and kicked up a chunk.
Red hot coal got in his shoe,
And oh! my lawd, how the ashes flew.

CHORUS

4. Old Dan Tucker was a fine old man,
Washed his face in a fryin' pan,
Combed his hair with a wagon wheel,
Died with toothache in his heel.
